

4. Courses for young people / teenagers

Poles are very attached to tradition, history and language of their country. They try to maintain contacts with their homeland and come here often. Wherever they live, they strive to cultivate a language of their ancestors. It also includes their care for their children not only to know the native culinary delights, dancing, and costumes but also the language.

SCHOLA POLONICA, organizes Polish language courses for the youth of Polish Diaspora.

Typically, such courses are offered during the summer and last for two weeks to two months.

Classes can be held both in Warsaw and other places such as tourist resorts.

Often, it is also an opportunity to meet Polish community from around the world
