

3. Courses outside the city

Poles believe that Poland is a beautiful country and there are many undiscovered places. Poland is in many beautiful cities, castles, palaces and open-air museums and other monuments of architecture.

But the biggest attraction is still well preserved nature. Beautiful national parks and natural landscape in which, fortunately does not have a lot of tourists, offer the possibility of direct contact with natural beauty and wild life.

It is in such places SCHOLA POLONICA, Polish language school for foreigners, in addition to regular courses, run throughout the year at the school, organize courses away. This is a unique opportunity to highly intensive language training for foreigners, combined with tourist attractions and recreational activities, which forward learning the language.

These courses usually last from one week to three. Regular classes of 3-5 people are normally held in the morning or in the morning and evening. They are supplemented by a day-long conversation with the teacher and the need to communicate in Polish in all situations, which gives positive and quick results. These sessions are offered at any level - from zero to advanced. Outgoing Courses are held throughout the year and can be both group and individual.
